

Julie Parrish, LVN

300 S. Archer St.
Anaheim, CA 92804

julie@anaheimresidentialcare.com

Home 714-772-3094
Cell 714-904-3315

Licensed Vocational Nurse

Direct Care / Geriatric/ Elderly ~ Acute / Chronic Care ~ Dementia/Alzheimer Care ~ End of Life/Hospice Care

- Dedicated, skilled LVN with a broad range of healthcare experience in geriatric nursing. Caring professional with superior communication and management skills. Strengths include creating a working environment and teamwork with home health and hospice agencies. Able to remain calm and professional throughout critical incidents. Strong analytical skills, capable of implementing solutions to complex problems. Possess special sensitivity to meeting diverse needs in varied situations. Proven ability to build positive relationships with patients, family members, physicians and other medical professionals.

Licensure & Certification

North Orange County Regional Occupational Program,

Anaheim, CA

- Licensed Vocational Nurse
- Intravenous Therapy – 30 hours
- Blood Withdrawal – 6 hours
- Healthcare Provider CPR, AHABLS
- Current TB Test, Current Physical, Current Immunizations

Personal Care/Elderly / 6 – Bed Facility

- Special Care: Pressure Ulcers, Prevention of Skin Breakdown, G-Tube Feeding and Care, Colostomy Care, Catheter Care, O2 Therapy, Wound Care/Application of Dressings,
- Dementia, Sundowner, and Alzheimer's patient care
- Understanding Mental Illness, Bipolar Disorder, Psychosocial Care, Special Needs of the Elderly
- End-of-Life / Hospice Care
- Promoting Resident's Rights & Promoting Dignity
- Medication Management: PRN, Routine, Narcotics, Working with pharmacies, Accurate documentation, Side Effects/Adverse Reactions, Preventing Medication Errors, Understanding CA Medication Regulations
- Working closely with family members to meet their needs for their loved one
- ADL's including showering/bed baths, oral and dental care, dressing, toileting, feeding, preparing food, laundry, accompanying to appointments such as physician's and advocating for maximum healthcare, hair, shopping and senior centers, etc.

Julie Parrish, LVN

Professional Experience

- Design and implementation of program to work closely with Department of Social Services, Community Care Licensing, Senior Care Division, and Office on Aging
- Program plans and design coordination working with hospice programs and home health agencies to enhance quality care for the elderly
- Developing and implementing staff training for quality health care of elderly including dementia care, Alzheimer's care, special needs of the elderly, and Hospice Care
- Activities Director for all events and holidays for elderly residents and their families
- P.C. and Microsoft Office literate

Human Resources/Personnel

- Managed all facets of Human Resource Department including start-up of new employee programs, Developed personnel forms, Conducted orientation, Wrote curricula for training, Designed and scribed employee handbooks and facility agreements and implemented them
- Experienced in recruiting, interviewing, placement, education, and evaluation of personnel, and support staff
- Successful trainer and instructor to employees and RCFE Directors/Owners, Created, developed and sold a "Disaster Preparedness Program" for the elderly care facilities
- Researched current CA state laws and regulations pertaining to providing care to the elderly

Education

California State Long Beach – Early Child Education CA	Long Beach,
Fullerton Community College – Child Development, ECE Teacher Certificate	Fullerton, CA
Cypress Community College – Human Services CA	Cypress,
North Orange County Regional Occupational Program - Nursing Assistant LTC - Licensed Vocational Nursing Program	Anaheim, CA
Indiana State University LVN to RN/BSN Program	On-Going

Employment History

Owner/Director: Miss Julie's Pre-School and Child Care 1978-2012

Owner/Administrator: Anaheim Residential Care Facility 2004-Present