

A background image featuring a large, faint Fibonacci spiral. The spiral is composed of a series of squares in various colors (red, green, blue, yellow, purple) that decrease in size as they spiral inward. The spiral itself is a thin, dark line that winds through the center of the composition. The overall aesthetic is mathematical and artistic.

30/ 60/ 10: The Golden Ratio for Social Marketing

February 2014

A stack of several cardboard boxes is the central focus. The top box has a simple sad face drawn on it with black marker. The background is a child's room, with colorful posters on the wall and a yellow robot figure visible in the upper right. The text is overlaid on the boxes.

In planning your social media content marketing strategy, what's the right mix of content?
