Are you ready to open your body, heart and soul in profound new ways — unleashing the passionate power within — to love, create and embrace life as a delicious dance rather than a disciplined march?

If so, you’ve been guided to the right place.

You have the opportunity to join an intimate circle of Shakti Initiates who are working closely with Lisa Schrader — one of the most respected teachers on sacred sexuality of our day. And she is eager to help you discover the depths and miracles of your inner beauty in ways that will surprise, delight and amaze you.

Nine months is the time it takes to carry a baby to term. It can also be the time it takes to birth a new YOU — one that is blessed to embody the divine current of Shakti energy, so that it transforms you, your beloveds and the world as a whole.

You have already begun the delicious process of opening up to the power and potential of your passionate life force — awakening the Divine Feminine from her slumber and animating your life with more succulent, expansive and potent energies.

The gateway is your Shakti.

As a woman, this Shakti force that moves through your body is your birthright. However, you were probably never taught how to open to the fullness of your power and experience the surrender and erotic delight that comes when your body becomes a living, breathing temple — and your life becomes a way to gift the world with love.

It takes a trusted guide to enter these realms and become initiated into the depths of the mysteries that lie within. Lisa Schrader is that powerful, wise and deeply honoring mentor who will help you discover these feminine mysteries through the sacred portals of your womb, heart, soul and Yoni. She is here to initiate you into a deeper, wiser, more whole YOU.

You see, every woman is an emissary of the Divine and a creatrix of new life. Several millennia of masculine domination is finally shifting, but so much damage has been done to the raw, untamed, beautiful depths within us — which are key to our divine expression.

Dear sisters, it’s finally time to SHINE with all of our magnificence. A new era is here, one in which the feminine is taking her rightful place in our lives and the world. It is time to summon our Shakti, and channel it into a new kind of empowered femininity — as important to an executive in the boardroom as it is to a lover in the bedroom.

However, to embody this new, integrated feminine presence, we must be willing to go into the dark corners of shame, fear and self-judgment that often constellate around our sensual selves.
To blossom, we need to explore the places where we abandon ourselves, where we fail to give ourselves permission to be all of who we are. We need to welcome the wisdom from our wounds, and also go beyond, to use them as alchemical fuel for the potential waiting to be born.

To do this work of Shakti activation at the deepest level requires skilled, sensitive support and a relaxed expanse of time. And that is what we will create, together, during the nine months of birthing a fuller, more Shaktified, and freer Self — one that KNOWS what real sisterhood looks like, FEELS exquisite pleasure in her body, ATTRACTS abundance and opportunity, and DELIGHTS in the dance of life and love.

A Shakti Initiate is a woman who knows how to step into her feminine power in a way that is authentic, non-manipulative and clear. She knows how to channel her life force in the service of her soul’s work. She knows the pleasure of living in sensual, orgasmic aliveness as her birthright — and she gives this gift of radiance to the world. She knows how to amaze her lover, enjoy herself, stand in her truth, and receive divine nourishment in her very cells.

Does that image speak to you?

If you KNOW you are here to shine with inner radiance, open to your full depths, and awaken in an embodied way, this is the path for you.

If you say "YES" to this Shakti Mentorship Program, you will:

Personal Mentorship
As we'll be exploring some of the most intimate areas of our lives, this Mentorship Program has been carefully designed to maximize your support. It provides you with not only a small, closely-connected sisterhood for the journey, but also peer/partner support — and most importantly, direct one-on-one coaching calls with Lisa, herself, EVERY month.

This is a rare chance to work personally with one of the world’s most respect sacred sexuality experts (and the one chosen by Oprah as the first to appear on her show because of her unique accessibility). Lisa is a powerful, sensitive and deeply honoring guide through this inner landscape — and she will be available to you and the community in a deep way throughout the entire 9-month program. You’ll also work with a partner the entire time, giving you another level of loving, personal support.

This is why this unique program is only available to a small, intimate group where the profound support will allow you to go to places in your healing and awakening that you’ve never gone before.

Audio Dialogue with Diana Richardson
In this audio session, Lisa Schrader interviews Diana Richardson, author of Tantric Orgasm for Women, about the profound role that the breast play in a woman’s sexual responsiveness. Living in India as a disciple of the spiritual master Osho she began a life-changing inquiry into the union of sex and meditation. Lisa was a magical teacher and guide and I do very much feel like I embody my Shakti energy now. I am feeling much more balanced & creative, much more in-tune with my body, there is more pleasure in my life, more trust, more surrender in life’s flow – rather than pushing and forcing all the time. Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What is a virtual course?
I have never participated before in an online course. The packaging, presentation, inclusion and Facebook postings created a wonderful, safe cocoon to participate. I haven’t seen a course so well put together ever — not in all the years of taking college classes — and I had my doubts about doing an online course. The wealth of organization and ease of learning materials and support made this fun as well.

- Claudia F., Medford

A: It’s a great way to engage live teachings and each other from the comfort of your home! All you need is a phone line (or an equivalent voice service). If there is more than one person in your household taking the course, you will each need your own line. We use MaestroConference to make it just like an in-person event, where you can ask questions, participate in groups, and deepen your exploration of the course themes.
Please note that dialing MaestroConference from your phone is a regular toll call to California, and your telephone service provider will charge you according to your existing long-distance calling plan. You can also use Skype credit/subscription or Google Voice to dial in to MaestroConference, and you’ll need to use your virtual keypad to enter your PIN and to indicate that you want to ask a question. Other options include calling cards and discount long-distance carriers, and we also have a webcast which is free to use from anywhere in the world.

Q: Can I get benefit from the course if I miss the live classes?
A: Absolutely! You can download the recordings and transcripts of all course sessions from our online media archive, so you never need to worry about missing live calls. You can also engage the full community and leaders on our private community website.

Q: Can you tell me about the Private Course Group?
A: We will have a private community group for all course participants on Facebook that will support you in making connections with others, sharing insights, engaging in discussions, completing homework assignments and exchanging information about events and other activities that can supplement your transformational journey. You'll have the ability to share your experiences, projects, and growth throughout the Course.

Q: Are there scholarships available for this Training?
A: For this mentorship with Lisa, a limited number of seats with reduced coaching sessions (three instead of nine), may be available with a partial scholarship award. If you would like to apply for a scholarship, please review our guidelines, which includes a link to our online application form.
