Now Vivant Company Profile

Now Vivint

APX Alarm has re-branded as Vivint. Their primary focus is still home security and monitoring, but have increased their focus on home automation and energy management.

Historical APX Alarms information

With the mission to protect families, the APX Alarm Security Solutions Inc. is a security systems company that serves clients across the United States and Canada. It sends teams of experts to residential establishments to install alarm systems to make communities safe.

The APX Alarm was founded in 1999 by Todd Pedersen and Keith Nellesen, who both have great experience in the home security industry. Operating for a decade now, the company claims notable growth that can be attributed to its groundbreaking products and firm dedication to clients.

Quantifying this âœonotable growth,â€ APX Alarm claims to be one of the five of the biggest home security firms in the United states with over half a million accounts sold from the time it was put up.
