PREFACE BY RICHARD A. PRICE

Albany, Oregon July, 2010

This book has been a source of valuable genealogical information since my Dad gave me a copy a number of years ago. As it was never formally published and only twenty eight copies were produced, I decided to make this information more widely available to the public by creating this edited and digitized edition. The original information was a little hard to follow, so I have restructured it in a manner that makes the flow of families much easier to discern. The original format has been retained, but each descendant of the three families is assigned a number which makes it easier to find where they are listed as a child and where they are listed as a parent. Some changes have been made to correct logical inconsistencies.

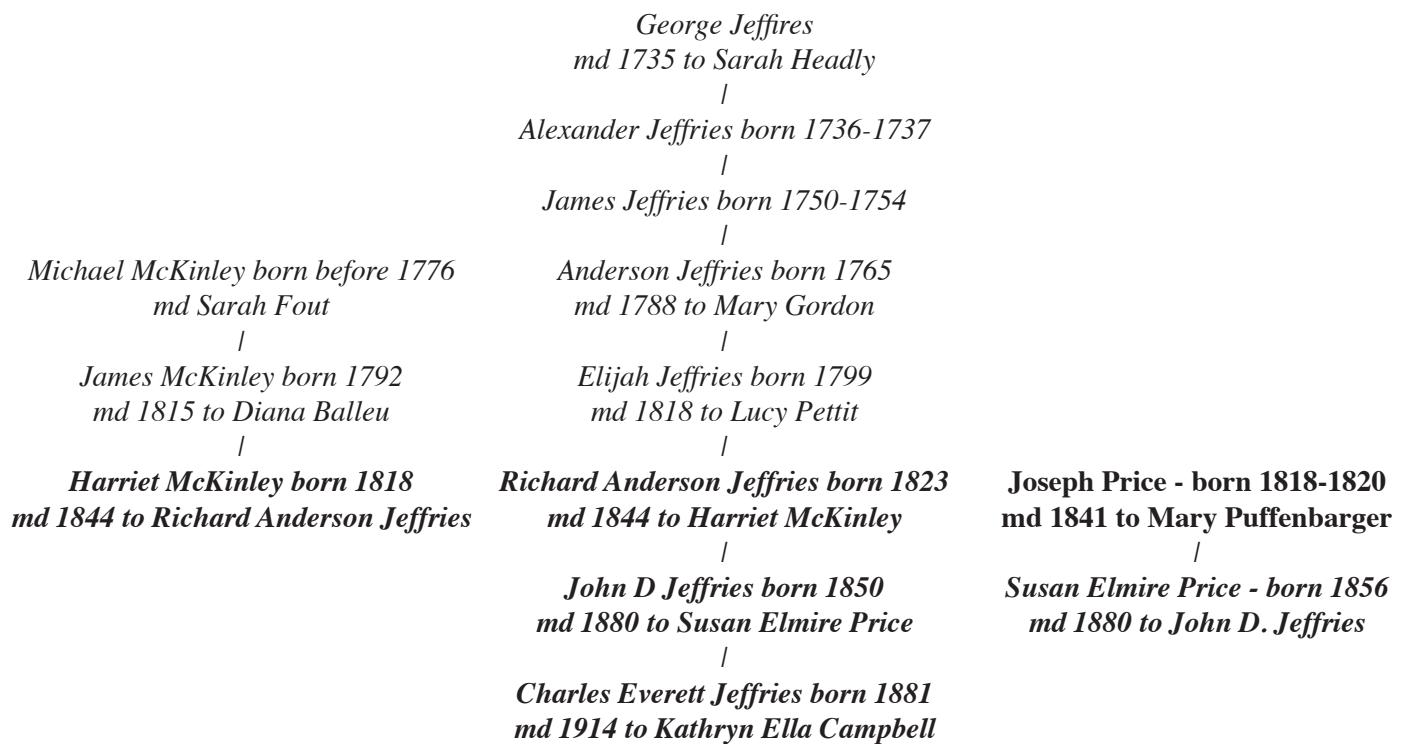

This book was written before the internet was available. Much more information on these families can probably be found. For the on-line edition, I have included the vital statistics only for persons who have been born in the last seventy-two years which is the census standard, unless their deaths have been documented. As future editions are released, I will include this information as well as the results of additional research. Information added by myself will be italicized.

Greetings:

Herein is a compilation of almost three years research. Additions may be made.

I am indebted for research done by the James McKinley, Richard Anderson Jeffries, and Joseph Price families; to genealogist William C. Smith of Washington D. C, Mrs. Eddleman of Springfield, Kentucky, Mrs. Botts of Columbia, Missouri, 26 relatives, and other sources for data received.

Most states do not have records prior to 1900 or their staffs are such that they have no time for genealogical research.

Census 1840 in Russell County, Kentucky: Solomon McKinley: Males 2 under 5, 1 5-10, 1 10-15, 1 15-20, 1 30-40, female 1 10-15, --page 23. James McKinley: Males 1 5-10, 1 10-15, 1 15-20, 1 40-50, females 1 15-20, 1 20-30, 1 50-60. Peter McKinley: Males 2 under 5, 2 5-10, 1 30-40, female 1 30-40.

Library, Carroll County, Missouri marriages (1833-1852) Haziel McKinley, by Elijah Jeffries. Putnam Co, Missouri Atlas (1877) Quintas McKinley settled 1850. He, and D. P. Arsissa each wed in Putnam Co. The James McKinley family appears to have migrated from Kentucky to Missouri about 1850.

Russell Co. Kentucky advised that James McKinley operated a ferry there on the Cumberland River in 1837. Also Anderson Jeffries (Richard Anderson Jeffries) wed Harriet McKinley there. The marriage bond could not be found.

Richard Anderson Jeffries' time and places of residence are elusive. Except of his military service there are not records of where he lived after his marriage until 1870 census of Bates Co. Missouri. Thereafter he lived in various places in Missouri except for a short time in the state of Washington.

To this date the parents and ancestors of Joseph Price have completely evaded each and every source of inquiry and investigation. Genealogist Smith still searching.

Genealogist Smith says discrepancies in the records of ancestors is not uncommon.

When the research was completed a printer examined it for the purpose of publishing a book. He advises that a book is quite expensive and that typed and copied pages in a binder are much better. I have over 2400 sheets prepared in 28 binders to be mailed.

Hope something of interest is present in this binder.

Sincerely

Charles Everett Jeffries

CHAPTER TWO: RICHARD ANDERSON JEFFRIES - BACKGROUND

Springfield, Kentucky 40069
October 21, 1966

Mr. C. E. Jeffries
417 West Park Street
Livingston, Montana, 59047

Dear Mr. Jeffries:

I am so sorry so many things have kept me from finishing the material I started for you on the families you want researched here. I think you will agree the search has been fairly successful. There seemed no way to prove here what I thought to be the family lines.

Early in the summer, Mrs. Berley from Greensburg, a Kentucky Highway researcher checking deeds for the state, came to Springfield, and I met her. I asked about Jeffries material in her area, and she offered to lend me a book by a deceased friend of hers who did much work on some of your families. This book was privately published - just a few copies - after the death of the lady who did the work but did not live to complete it. Her family finished it. I have copied the chapters referring to your ancestors, JEFFRIES & Pettits.

There is also a descendant of Elijah Jett and Rhoda Gordon, who has done some research. I have copied what she has, and it is some facts and some traditions. She sent data on the Owens family. I had not known that Thomas Pettit and High Gordon were brothers-in-law, having married Nathaniel Owens' daughters. The given name "Nathaniel" appears in the Jeffries and also the Campbell families (note Thomas Pettit data). Many of the families were related neighbors in Virginia counties and doubtless came together to Kentucky. All seem to have been Baptists and were together in Bethlehem Church, formed 1805. I believe Elijah Jeffries and Joel Gordon were both ordained there.

Most of the Kentucky lifetime of Anderson Jeffries was spent in Washington County, and I think he lived only a short time in Hardin after moving there. A tombstone for A. JEFFRIES is in the Gilead Churchyard in Hardin County. A friend of ours here, Shelton Jeffries, was there once searching for family clues. Shelton does not descend from Anderson Jeffries but from a Nathaniel Jeffries here, closely related, I am sure, and living in same area.

You will note that only Thomas Pettit Jeffries remained in Kentucky, and he was the ancestor of the writer of the book quoted. The location of the marriages of Elijah's children, are given; also Elijah and Elizabeth (2nd wife)'s gravesites. I am told by Shelton Jeffries that his mother sent the old Family Bible to Missouri to a relative to copy, and never got it back. But I feel sure this is not concerned with the Elijah Jeffries family.

Your marriage bond and letter from the Clerk, are enclosed with this material. Also, I am sending additional forms for the families, which you may like to complete from your own information, and for your files. Hope you enjoy the data. If you want copies of documents in Washington County, I will try to arrange for these through our Clerk. Will appreciate your comments, and try to answer any question in our County. The fee for the research and copying is $10, and I am sorry for the great delay.

Sincerely yours,

LOUISE R. EDDLEMAN (Signed)

The Jeffries Family

The name “JEFFRIES” signifies “At Peace with God”.

Jeffries Coat of Arms: Sable, a lion rampant, or, between three scaling ladders.

Crest: On a mount vert, a castle with two towers.

Motto: fac recte et nil time.

The earliest Jeffries in America was Nathaniel, and his wife, who landed at Jamestown Island, 1619, from the ship “Gift of God”. He sailed from London, 1618, with a colony of two hundred fifty people that came to settle eighty thousand acres of land obtained by Richard Martin, an attorney for the London Company. The Settlement was known as Martin’s Hundred. (Ref: Earliest Immigrant’s - Hotten)

A number of other Jeffries men came to American during the 17th Century and became prominent citizens,

My known Jeffries Ancestors

1. G E O R G E J E F F R I E S married S A R A H H E A D L E Y in the county of Lancaster about 1735, and moved with his infant son, Alexander Jeffries, born about 1736-1737, to what is now Fauquier Co., Virginia. He obtained from Richard Henry Lee a tract of land on the Western Slope of Watery Mountain, about two-and-one-half miles from Warrenton, Virginia. This family had lived in Prince William, King George, and Stafford Counties, Virginia.

Joseph Jeffries, a brother of George, came with him and lived near George. Joseph Jeffries had several children. (Ref: Virginia Magazine. Vol. 7, p 306).

“On September 25, 1761, Capt. William Edmunds at the head of a Fauquier Co., Virginia Militia, marched to the Ohio River, to join General Clark. George Jeffries and sons, ALEXANDER and James were in Edmunds’ company. Simon Kenton who went from Fauquier Co., Virginia, opened up the western part of Kentucky to white settlers. Great numbers of Fauquier Co., people followed.”

2. A L E X A N D E R J E F F R I E S married a Miss White and settled in Fauquier Co., Virginia, where he reared his family, became a prosperous farmer at Manor Leads, Fairfax’s Domain in upper Fauquier. The Tax List of 1782 lists Alexander Jeffries and son, JAMES, and Alexander Jeffries, Jr. and Joseph Jeffries owning 10 slaves and 40 head of horses and cattle.

Alexander Jeffries (appears to be a brother of George Jeffries who married Sarah Headley) was a soldier in the French and Indian War. Two of his sons served in the Revolution. After the Revolution they went to Ohio, thence to Missouri. Alexander Jeffries was a member of the Broad Run Baptist Church near Warrenton, Virginia. He was ancestor of the famous pugilist, James J. Jeffries.

(Note - there were two Alexander Jeffries. The writer’s ancestor (above) was the son of George Jeffries, above).

(Note - the other Alexander Jeffries married Lettie Barton, Sep 30, 1741, Overwharton Parish Register - 1720-1760. He had sons, Eli, Reuben, George, Eliza, Stephen, John, and Moses Jeffries: three daughters, one married a Lernell, one a Weaver, and another daughter married a Lander. Information on these was from James W. Jeffries, Carbon, Indiana.)

3. J A M E S J E F F R I E S, son of my Alexander, had sons, ANDERSON JEFFRIES born 1765-1767, according to the Tax List of Fauquier County, Virginia; James Jr., born 1770-1774; Ephriam Jeffries, born 1775-1777.

JAMES JEFFRIES gave patriotic service during the Revolution. He and his family remained in Fauquier Co., Virginia until 1799 (Tax Lists).

4. A N D E R S O N J E F F R I E S, eldest son of James Jeffries, appears as a taxable with his father, in 1788. Next year, 1789, he is listed as head of his own household. He married Mary Gordon, daughter of Hugh and Sarah Gordon, on August 25, 1788. (Marriage Book I, page 231, Fauquier Co., Virginia). The Gordons lived in adjoining County of King George as shown by the following deed: King George Co., Virginia, Deed Book 7, p 201, Dec 6, 1787, Deed recorded June 5, 1788.

HUGH GORDON and SARAH, his wife, to Benjamin Johnson, 90 acres in Hanover Parish, King George County, Virginia, etc...

Also - Public Claim Certificate for furnishing provision for the Army - at Court held for King George County on April 4, 1782. High Gordon received pay for 350 pounds of beef taken for Public Use. Fauquier Co. formed 759 from Prince William, and Prince William from King George, 1730 - 1731. Stafford formed 1664.

ANDERSON JEFFRIES disappears from Fauquier County Tax Lists by 1776. With his wife, and High Gordon family, he removed to Mercer County, Kentucky. There were other Jeffries families in Mercer County early but relationships not known. Mathew Jeffries left will in Book I, p 63, 1788, wife Isobel; sons - William and John to have certain properties when they came of age, and daughter, Agnes Hingston, Other names there: Henry, Thomas, William. Moses was in Nelson Co., Kentucky.

Will of Thomas Jeffries is in Jessamine Co., 1834; Heirs, Mary Ann (Polly) Johnson; Children, Nelson, Sally, George, William, Enoch, Joseph, Eliza, Thomas Jr., Lydia, and John. Absolom and Ann Hunt. Thomas was married twice. One wife was named Polly Dickerson.

A Henry Jeffries married Margret Chambers, Fauquier Co, Virginia.

William Jeffries married Nancy Smith, Aug 20, 1786 in Mercer Co., Kentucky. She was a daughter of Rev. James Smith, Baptist Minister who went to Illinois Territory and was captured by Indians. Was held captive for two years, then ransomed by his son by giving the Indians a horse and Gold watch. William Jeffries was a Revolutionary War soldier, and a pensioner in Garrard Co., Kentucky, and had his pension transferred in 1838 to Marion Co., Missouri, and was living in home of his son, presumably, James W. Jeffries, 1841.

Known children of William and Nancy Smith Jeffries:

Sally married Thomas Floyd, 1809, son of John Floyd, Revolution soldier.

Patsey married Benhamin Rhoton, 1816, Bond also signed by William Jeffries

Polly married Benjamin Alverson, 1815, Bond also signed by William Jeffries

4. ANDERSON JEFFRIES and family moved to Hardin Co., Kentucky. See that County, Deed Book M, p 358, Jan 14 1832. To Anderson Jeffries of Hardin Co. from Thomas Chilton and wife Frances, 150 acres of land on Nolyn Creek for $800,....

Hardin Co. Deed Book T, p 102, Sept 23, 1839, Widow of Anderson Jeffries, Mary and heirs: Isham Jeffries and wife, Jane; Lucy Dorsey, James Jeffries and wife Nelly (Elenor); Thomas Jeffries and wife Polly; ELIJAH JEFFRIES and wife Elizbeth (his 2nd wife); Hugh Jeffries and wife Lucy Ann; William Jeffries and wife Kitty Ann. Sold some land as above, for $825. Deed acknowledged by Mary Jeffries and Lucy Dorsey of Washington Co., Kentucky on Nov 15, 1839. Also in Pulasha Col, Kentucky. by Elijah Jeffries and wife Elizabeth, on Aug 11, 1840. Other heirs were living in Hardin Co., Kentucky. (Elijah was a minister and traveled from County to County.)

5. ELIJAH JEFFRIES, son of Anderson and Mary Gordon Jeffries, married Lucy Pettit, 12th day of August, 1818. Lucy was daughter of Thomas Pettit and Bethethelon Owens Pettit, of Washington County, Kentucky. Bond signed by Thomas Pettit's permission, by Elijah and Anderson Jeffries. Elijah Jeffries owned 55 acres of land in Garrard County, Kentucky, 200 acres in Washington County and a number of acres in Hardin County, He and wife Lucy made their home in Washington County, Kentucky..

Lucy Pettit Jeffries died early in 1832, left 6 small children: 1. James Rudd, 2. Richard Anderson, 3. Thomas Pettit, 4. William Henry, 5. Lucy Jane, and 6. Eliza Ann Humphries.

On March 26, 1832 Elijah married Elizabeth Marshall (born June 23, 1803 in Washington County, daughter of John M. Marshall and wife - a daughter of Col. B. Long of the Revolutionary War). The second marriage of Elijah Jeffries took place in Harrodsburg, Mercer County, Kentucky.

Spencer's HISTORY OF KENTUCKY BAPTISTS, Vol. II, p 143, has a biography of Elijah Jeffries, a most influential preacher for about 20 years in this area.

"During Elijah Jeffries ministerial period he performed many marriages. In Lincoln Co., Kentucky on May 11, 1838, he officiated at marriage of his son, James Rudd Jeffries to Martha Marshall. In Carroll Co., Missouri, he marries William H. Jeffries, his son, to Eliza Jane Hubbard, March 13, 1850. Also his daughter Lucy Jane to Haziel McKinley on January 29, 1851."

In 1849 Elijah took his second wife, Elizabeth and family to Carroll County, Missouri to make their home.

HISTORY OF CARROL COUNTY, MISSOURI, 1881, p 445. "The First Schoolhouse in Hurricane Township was built on Section 23, about 1852 by Elijah Jeffries. James Rudd Jeffries was magistrate of same county, 1854."

In 1850 U.S. Census of Carroll County, Missouri, Elijah Jeffries was born 1799. On Feb 18, 1869, his estate was settled in Carroll, County, Missouri, Administrators were William Henry and John M. Jeffries, his two sons.

Elizabeth Marshall Jeffries was born July 23, 1803, died July 24, 1896. Both are buried in Hurricane Cemetery at Hale, Missouri. (Mrs. J. P. Beardorff of Hale located these graves for the writer).

An Obituary of Elizabeth M. Jeffries stated she came first to Livingston County, Missouri in 1848, then to Carroll in 1849, was related to the well-known Thomas Marshall.

Eliza Ann Humphries Jeffries' daughter, Robbie Ann Calloway wed McCollom, had a copy of all the children of Elijah Jeffries, six by first marriage, six by second. Eliza Ann was the 6th child of Lucy Pettit and Elijah, and was three weeks old when her mother died. A neighbor Mrs. Marshall and her daughter Elizabeth took Eliza Ann and her sister Lucy Jane to raise after Lucy's death, but within three months Elijah had married Elizabeth Marshall, and took the little girls back home with him and his bride.

James Rudd Jeffries married Martha Marshall, sister of Elizabeth, his father's 2nd wife, and had four children; went to the Civil War, never came home to his family; married again in California, and had at least one daughter Ethel, several children. Martha's were: Lucy Pettit, Fannie, James, George.

6. RICHARD ANDERSON JEFFRIES, son of Elijah Jeffries, married by Elijah to Harriet McKinley, Russell Co., Kentucky and had seven children. 1. Titus, 2. Louse E, 3. John D., 4. Arsissa, 5. Octavia, 6. Elizabeth, 7. Harriett.

Thomas Pettit Jeffries: The only son of Elijah to stay in Kentucky. All others went to Missouri. He married Mary Ann (Polly) Nelson (This is the line of the writer).

William Henry Jeffries: Married Eliza Ann Hubbard, Carroll Co., Missouri, and had 11 children.

Lucy Jane: Married Haziel McKinley, Carroll Co., Missouri and had five children.

Children of Elijah Jeffries and wife Elizabeth Marshall:

1. Elijah Gordon Jeffries married 1st Miss Winfrey, 2nd Ann Heaton. No data. Tradition says he went to Payette, Payette Co., Idaho, never returned; that he and Ann had fifteen children.
2. John Jeffries married Rebecca Shannon, had several children, triplets-sons died in infancy; two girls names Lillian and May.
3. Frances Jeffries married W. P. Delaney and had eight children.
4. Elizabeth Jeffries married William Calloway, brother of the John Jackson Calloway who married Eliza Ann Humpries Jeffries.
5. Nannie Coffey Jeffries married Rufus Spalgler and had five children.
6. Zerrilda Cowen Jeffries, born Jan 25, 1843, died Nov 17, 1896, known as Aunt Zer, never married, was a cripple all of her life, an expert in needlecraft.

Elijah was at one time the minister of the Hurricane Baptist Church.

From: History of Vernon Co., Missouri. 1887, pp 472-473

“Elijah G. Jeffries, son of Elijah Jeffries who was born in Jamestown, Virginia, or Kentucky, was born in Harding Co., Kentucky March 19, 1833. He married first Elizabeth Winfrey, born in Kentucky, 1831.”

(Note - Louse R. Eddleman - I wonder about Elijah born at Jamestown, Virginia, certainly not the original Jamestown, and if in 1799, possibly in Kentucky. He probably preached in Jamestown, Kentucky - Russell Co. only two counties away from Lincoln, and next to Pulashi, where one notation places him preaching.)

1850 U. S. Census: Marion Co., Missouri, p 363, Round Grove Township.

James J. Jeffries, 38 farmer, born in Kentucky, wife Elizabeth, 5 children

Hugh B. Jeffries, born in Kentucky.

Elijah Jeffries, age 51, born in Kentucky, a Baptist Minister, with wife Elizabeth and their family.

These records show that the family of Jeffries is the same as in Kentucky.

Thomas Pettit Jeffries remained in Kentucky. Born near village of Texas, Washington Co., Kentucky. Went to Russell County, Kentucky, farmed a few years, logged on Cumberland river, met Mary Ann Nelson. He secured marriage license in Nelson Co., Kentucky, married in Russell Co., by his father, Elijah Jeffries who sent the return to Russell Co., Clerk's office. They bought a large farm on Russell Creek in Adair Co. She died 1899, he in 1902, buried in family plot on that old farm.

A C O P Y of Letter from
CLYDE GORDON, MISSOURI

Sent to Louise R. Eddleman by Mrs. Elizabeth Jett Skaggs, Doddsville, Missouri

"I have another Owen listed in Fauquier County, Virginia - Bethel Owen to Elizabeth Owen, 12-17-1787".

"A Mrs Cory of Little Rock, Arkansas, 1933...gave me these records which she got from Mrs. Mattie R. Davis of Lexington, Kentucky, a descendant of NOAH GORDON, a brother of Rhody. Sarah Owen was probably much older than Rebecca". From Clyde Gordon's letter.....

"Also in Fauquier County, Virginia, records are Jeremiah Owen and wife Jane. His wife was probated Aug 23, 1773; and a Joshua Owens and wife AMELIA (Kenton) sister of Simon Kenton, well known pioneer and Indian fighter.

I do not know how these Owens are related to NATHANIEL OWENS, Sr. Nathaniel Owens, Jr. was a brother of SARAH OWENS who married Hugh Gordon. I think there was another family of Gordons not related to ours in Virginia and must have come to about the same region of Kentucky about the same time. Old Elijah Gordon came to Missouri and is buried in Polk County, and my grandfather was 25-30 years old before Elijah died, so he knew a lot about the family. It was handed down about Hugh coming over, worked his way on a freighter, and that there was another one here.

My Aunt, died 1949, told about the area, IVOR, a county, town or some area in Scotland, but I have not found a map to see if there is or was such a place. It is said to be about 100 miles north of Glasgow, Scotland. The older Gordons have used the "en" spelling as Gorden, but most others write it Gordon, unless told otherwise.

There are records of Owens at Greensburg, Green Co., Kentucky and some of the Gordons also. I think Nathaniel Owens, Jr. is buried at Greensburg. The first sheriff of Green Co., was Nath Owens, a farmer of good education for the times, acquired considerable wealth. He bestowed great attention to the education of his children, sent them from home to the best schools, and he was among the earliest pioneers of Green County. He acted for a time as Justice of Peace and also Judge of Court, previous to 1801. He died about 1846 on Little Bush Creek, 80 years old, and is buried there".

(Part of this, you see, is hearsay, but since it might come in handy will just copy most of the Clyde Gordon letter...).

"Have heard that Hugh came over when 12-15 years old from Scotland and that his father's name was also Hugh. He settled on the James River in Virginia, was in Fauquier County, and then King George County; married Sarah Owens in King George Co., and moved to Kentucky around 1788-1790. My ancestor was Elijah born 1788 in Virginia. This Elijah Gorden is buried in the Gorden Cemetery 5 or 6 miles south east of Halfway, Missouri. Noah Gorden, an older brother, is buried 1 1/2 miles south west of Bolivar, Missouri. Joel Gorden's name shows up here in Missouri, but not sure if he is Elijah & Rhody's brother.

High is supposed to have had 12 children and I have only 10, an not all of their births.

Betsy married a Barlow: Annie wed a Tyree; (there are some Tyrees in North Missouri). Rhoda married a Jett; Sallie wed a Whitman; Molly (nickname for Mary) wed a Jeffries Frances; Noah married Nancy Bartlett, born 5-8-1799-died 1865; William; Joel was born 6-17-1783; Elijah born 8-29-1788-died 2-20-1862, married Statia Ann Gootee. He was my Gr-Grandfather. Connecting Hugh as 1st generation in this county, I am then #6 born 5-19-1897. Elijah, Samuel, Joseph H., William Henry, and me.

MY BRADHSAWS AND THEIR ALLIED FAMILIES

By Carrie Bradshaw Bolin

Chapter

MY PETTIT FAMILY

(Pages 76 through 80)

The PETTIT family is a very old Norman family recorded at Meaux, in Normandy as early as 650. They were known as the Pettits of the Mills and the Pettits of the Moors. Some were manufacturers, others were farmers. When William the Conqueror invaded England, many of the Pettits joined his army. He burned his vessels to prevent their return to Normandy, therefore the Pettits remained in England where they became prosperous. Many were knighted and several married into Royalty.

Heavy taxes were imposed upon the people of England which the Pettits bitterly resented. They believed in freedom from unjust taxes, personal liberty, and freedom to worship according to the dictates of their own consciences. For that reason Thomas Pettit joined John Winthrope and sailed to New England.

Thomas Pettit was born at Wedford, England, about 1610, sailed in the ship "Talbot" which left England in May, 1630. It was at sea for three months. landed at Charlestown, now Cambridge, Massachusetts, on July 2, 1630. The parentage of Thomas Pettit has not been proven.

Thomas Pettit married 1st, Christian - sometimes recorded as Catherine - Mellowes, in Essex County, England, in November, 1629, the daughter of Abraham Mallowes and Martha Bulkeley. Christian Mallowes was born about 1610-1611. Her mother Martha Bulkeley, descended from King Edward I, and Knights of the Garter,, and from the Eight Securities for the Magna Charta of 1215. John Pettit, brother of Thomas Pettit, and Oliver Mallowes, brother of Christian who married Marie James, the daughter of the Rev. John James, sailed with Thomas and Christian Pettit to America. The famous Ann Pettit Hutchison may have come long with them. There were seventeen vessels in the Winthrope Fleet which brought one thousand Puritans and Non-Conformists of the Church of England, to their new home. Many brought their cows, horses, goats and seeds for planting.

Thomas Pettit was a Non-Conformist, and got arrested because of his stand against the Massachusetts Bay Colony, but was released without punishment, went to the Falls of the Piscataqua, in New Hampshire, and founded the town of Exeter. He helped establish the Congregational Church there in 1638. The Duke of York granted the Massachusetts Bay Colony control of the land the surrounded the settlement of Exeter. So Thomas Pettit sold his rights, and with his family, went to Long Island. In 1708, he was one of the first members of the Presbyterian Church in Newton, Long Island, He died in Newtown before the year 1668. (Note - L. R. Eddleman -evidently the date of 1708 is an error, or the man is the same Thomas)..

Will Book 4, page 405, April 9, 1807, probated Sept 28, 1807

“I, NATHANIEL OWENS, of the County of Fauquier and Commonwealth of Virginia, being convinced of the uncertainty of human life and of approaching mortality, do make or ordain this my last will and Testament revoking all former wills by me made.

First, I give and bequeath to my Stepdaughter, Elizabeth Marden (or Maide) twenty pounds to be paid by my estate hereafter to be named, to her heirs. Secondly, it is my will and desire that whatever property, both real and personal, I am possessed of at my death shall be fairly sold by my executors to the highest bidders excepting my slaves which are to have the privilege of choosing their masters and to be sold by my executors fairly at private sale to such persons or person as the said slaves ay choose to serve, at a fair price. And after paying all just and legal claims against my estate and the legacy first mentioned that the residue be equally divided between the whole of my children and their heirs, except my son Samuel’s part which it is my will and desire shall be equally divided between my two grandsons, Reuben and William Owens, sons of my said son by the first marriage, and their heirs. And lastly I do nominate and appoint my friend Joseph Blackwell my two sons-in-law, Allen Steward and Thomas Pettit, sole Executors of this my last Will and Testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 9th day of April 1808.*

 High Gordan wed Sarah Owens, Oct 19, 1781, Fauquier Co., Virginia, and they came to Fayette County, Kentucky, 1788.

Thomas PETTIT and Christian MELLOWES PETTIT had eight children.
(there may have been others) -

1. THOMAS PETTIT, born June 30, 1630 on the ship "Talbot" enroute to America.
2. SARAH PETTIT, born 1634, married an English sailor by name of Skidmore.
3. JOSEPH PETTIT, born 1636, married Margret Germaine.
4. ELIZABETH PETTIT, born 1637, married 1st Thomas Reed, 2nd John Burroughs
5. JOHN PETTIT, born 1638, No data.
6. MARY PETTIT, born 1640 married John Furman (Forman). She was paid for caring for her father until his death, 1668.
7. NATHANIEL PETTIT, born 1645 (More data below).
8. HANNAH PETTIT, BORN 1647, no data.

NATHANIEL PETTIT (#7 above) was born at Exeter, England, the son of Thomas and Christian Mellowes Pettit, married about 1665. (Note* Louise R. Eddleman--another error, maybe Exeter, Ne Hamshsire, for above data shows parents coming to America, 1630). He married Mary Bailey, daughter of Elias Bailey who was the son of John, and who later went to Jamaica, Long Island, bought thirty thousand acres of land there, in New Jersey, above the Falls of the Delaware. He and his sons owned fourteen hundred acres at Trenton which the State Capitol now stands on.

Nahaniel and Mary Bailey Pettit had eight children:

MOSES, MARY, JUDITH, ELIAS, NATHANIEL, Jr., JANE, JOHNATHAN, JOHN

1. Moses Pettit was born 1655, died 1718. Married 1st Ludia Lawrence, and had Nathaniel Pettit III, born 1689 who had Jonathan Pettit II who married Mary Sgourds. Married a second time to a girl named "Alice".
2. Mary Pettit died childless.
3. Judith Pettit married a Mr. Neald (Neild). No data.
4. Elias Pettit (more data below).
5. Nathaniel Pettit, Jr. born 1676, married Elizabeth Heath, daughter of Andrew Heath who bought 420 acres of land at the Falls of the Delaware. In his will Andrew Heath, Hopewell Township, New Jersey, dated 3 Jan 1716-1717, he mentions his wife (second one), Hannah who was the widow Clark with three children, Samuel, Hannah, and Daniel Clark. Andrew Heath's children were Andrew Jr., John, Elizabeth (above), Sarah, Richard and Martha.

Nathaniel Pettit and Elizabeth Health Pettit had five children:

- (1). Elizabeth Pettit who married Dennis Wolverton.
- (2). Andrew Pettit, born about 1690, married Dinah Wolverton, perhaps a sister to Dennis Wolverton, Dinah was a Quakeress. She and Andrew had 6 sons. After the death of Andrew Pettit, Dinah married Jonathan Furman who became step-father to Jonathan, Amos, John, Nathaniel, Isaac and Charles..

- (3). Abigail Pettit. No Data.
- (4). Nathaniel Pettit, married Margaret McFarlaine.
- (5). John Pettit, married Mercy Fisher.

6. Jane Pettit, daughter of Thomas and Mary Bailey Pettit, was sometimes called "Christian", married August 21, 1705, in the home of her uncle Jonathan Bailey to George Ely, son of Joshua Ely. Joshua Ely died in Trenton, New Jersey, 1702. In his will he provided (proved 1704) that his son George's share be reduced if he married Christian Pettit, daughter of Nathaniel Pettit. George married his sister Jane, so the records say, but may have been the same girl with her name changed. They had the following children: John, George, Mary, Sarah, and Rebecca Ely.

7. Johnathan Pettit, born 1721, came with his father and father's brother to Amwell, New Jersey, about 1737. He married Deborah Robins, daughter of Daniel and Hope Robbins.

8. Charles Pettit married Sarah Smith and went to Canada.

ELIAS PETTIT (#4 above) son of Nathaniel and Mary Bailey Pettit, was named for his grandfather, Elias Bailey.

It is thought by those who have done research on this line of the Pettit family that Elias Pettit had two wives, namely: Jane Furman, and a Miss Havens. After the death of Elias Pettit (or a divorce from him), Jane Furman Pettit took back her maiden name "Furman" which was a common occurrence and custom in that day, evidence as follows:

Somerset County, New Jersey - Abstracts of New Jersey Wills, Vol VI, 1781-1785 page 156, May 21, 1783 - Elizabeth Furman who married Jonathan Evans, 1764, resumed her maiden name of "Furman" and wrote her will 1783.

JANE FURMAN'S Will as follows - the Beginning of authentic proof of writer's family line of Pettits. ABSTRACT - Calendar of Wills, Vol. V, pp 193-194, December 12, 1770. Will of Jane Furman of Western Precince, Somerset Co, New Jersey, recorded at Perth Amboy, New Jersey.

"I, Jane Furman, spinster (this title meant a spinner or weaver, seamstress) of Somerset County, New Jersey, wish my son Zedahiah Pettit to have property,etc., - my grandson, Benjamin Pettit, son of my son Zedahiah, to have propertyetc., - The house and lot where I now live to be sold and the money to be given to my grandchildren, Sarah Pettit, Jesse Pettit, Isaac Pettit, and Jane Pettit who are children of my son, Zedikiah Pettit, and the other part to my brother Nowell Furman and his sons, Isaac and Nowell. My grand daughter, Jane Pettit, daughter of my son Zedahiah Pettit, the rest of my goods, etc.

Witnesses: Oakley Stephenson, Garbrial Furman, John Hedges.

Inventory of property of Jane Furman, Somerset Co, New Jersey, found in Library. L. P. 18, May 29, 1773. By Joseph Olden and John Hedges. (evidently another error, 1783 above for the will was recorded, 1770).

The Pettits and Furmans were closely connected, neighbors, and families intermarried as shown above. Furmans were witnesses for Pettits at different times..

Names appear on various documents. (Note-LRE - Furmans also came to Washington Co.)

OBADIAH PETTIT, son of JANE FURMAN Pettit. He married Ann Hedges, perhaps the daughter of John Hedges. They were still living in New Jersey, 1782, conveying property. He later moved to Fauquier Co., Virginia. Proof-ref. Fauquier Co., Virginia, Minute Book 1795-1797, p 239, 1796 Court. An Indenture and Sale between Obediah Pettit and wife Ann Pettit, ... etc.

On Pay Roll again in May 1777 in Captain John Poulson's Company. Again in June and July, 1778. During the period of service of Thomas Pettit, he came to Kentucky and took up land, Returned to Virginia and continued with his services in the War until closed.

Proof of Land Claims: Garrard County, Kentucky Will Book A, p 57. Deposition of Benjamin Pettit taken at the request of John Brum to perpetuate testimony.

“Benjamin Pettit swears that in the year 1775 or early 1776, he and Thomas Pettit were in the woods and found a spring known as the Sinking Spring, and that they made some improvements by marking some trees. Ten days after this, he and Thomas Pettit found another spring known as the Hogan Spring, and made some improvements. Thomas said if I found another spring close by to mark it for him. In February I was in the wood again and found a spring known as Rice's Big Spring and I marked a big sycamore tree with our names by chopping them with a tomahawk.

Then in warm weather 1778, I went to all of the springs and made improvements. Thomas had taken up four hundred acres at and near the springs. I with others, went to a spring known as Grave Spring where Kennedy settled his station, from whence he went in a southerly course to Lexington to fight the Indians."

“T. P.” (Thomas Pettit) 1776, was carved on the sycamore tree above the Sinking Spring.

Collin's History of Kentucky says Pettit's Station was in Lincoln County, two and one half miles from Montgomery's Station on the headwaters of Green River. Logan's Fort was one mile west of Standford in Lincoln County.

Benjamin Pettit was the son of Zedahiah Pettit, and Thomas Pettit was the son of Obediah Pettit (See Jane Furman's Will).

After the death of his father, 1807, Thomas Pettit, together with his family, returned to Kentucky, and settled in Washington County, where he lived until his death 1834.

As stated above, Thomas Pettit married Bethethalon (Hetby, Hethy) Owns. Proof the heirs of Thomas Pettit is found in the Washington County, Kentucky Clerk's office, Will Book C.

APPENDIX A: PLEASANT GROVE (MEYER'S CEMETERY)

This cemetery is located near Rockville, Bates County Missouri. This information is extracted from the book "Missouri Cemeteries - 1980" by E. Joyce Christensen, a copy of which can be found in the Butler Public Library in Butler, Bates County, Missouri. The book contains one mistake. It incorrectly identifies the cemetery as Myer's cemetery which is actually located in another part of Bates County. The correct name of the cemetery is Meyer's Cemetery. It was formerly known as Pleasant Grove Cemetery. To get to this cemetery proceed east on County Road B from U. S. Highway 71 (Rich Hill) several miles, and then north on County Road P (at this point County Road B turns south towards Rockville). Go about a mile and then turn west on SE15305. The cemetery is a short distance up this road. In the book, the graves are numbered from 1 to 190. The right side of the cemetery is numbered first followed by the left side.
