In addition to the most excellent GameRoom and our new Indie Heaven area, it wouldn't be SGC without a full arcade. So we've been hitting the auctions and have come up with a fairly impressive line-up. If you have a cabinet that you'd like to bring to the next SGC on 2014, we'll give you a FREE badge to the event. Simply shoot Sean a message to Sean@ScrewAttack.com and he'll make it happen!

FAQ

What is the Iron-Man of Gaming? The Iron-Man of Gaming, commonly known as IMoG, is a one of a kind multi-game tournament, designed to test competitors over all consoles all genres and all eras to find the best overall gamer. IMoG takes place over 3 days and 7 games.
How does the IMoG work?

Day 1: All competitors will be run through 3 score based games. We will then use our IMoG points system to award IMoG points to competitors depending on how they placed in each game. At the end of the day, each competitor's IMoG points will be totaled and the 32 competitors with the highest total IMoG points will advance to Day 2.

Day 2: The top 32 competitors from Day 1 will play 3 head to head tournaments and will be awarded IMoG points based on their standings. At the end of Day 2 the total IMoG points from Day 2 will be totaled and added to the IMoG Points from Day 1. The Top 16 players with the highest overall IMoG points will advance to Day 3.

Day 3: The top 16 competitors will compete in a Mystery game revealed to them only moments before playing. At the end of the Mystery game competitors will be awarded points based on their standing. The Day 3 IMoG points will be added to the competitors total IMoG score and the competitor with the highest overall IMoG Points will be declared the Iron-Man of Gaming.

What games will be used in this year's IMoG? The first two games will be announced soon and the others released in individual reveal videos on a monthly basis after.

How do I sign up for IMoG? Show up to SGC 2013 and sign up at the IMoG registration area and pay the $10 registration fee. In addition you must have an SGC badge, which can be pre-ordered here or purchased on-site.

How long has IMoG been around? IMoG was created in 2007 by ScrewAttack.com and has been run every year since, excluding 2012.

Can I bring my own controller? Sure! However, all controllers will need to be inspected by a station attendant before use in the tournament to ensure no modification have been done and that the controller does not have a turbo function enabled.

My fightstick is modded for multi console use, does that mean I can't use it? No worries, dual mod fightsticks are allowed, but again the stick will be subject to inspection.

I have more questions. who do I ask? Send any additional questions to Chad@ScrewAttack.com

General IMoG Rules

- Absolutely No Cheat codes or glitches will be allowed for any game in the competition. If you are caught cheating you will be given 0 points for that game and may be disqualified.
- Out of respect for younger attendees and competitors please keep swearing to a minimum.
- Unsportsmanlike conduct will not be tolerated and may result in disqualification from the game or tournament.
- Cheating and unsportsmanlike conduct will be determined by the station attendant.

COSPLAY CONTEST

Welcome to SGC's annual Cosplay Contest. Those wishing to participate whould pick up an entry form just outside of reservation. There will be more details there. But don't forget that any cosplayers should stop by security and have their replica weapons checked before entering the convention. Prizes include $50, $25 , and $10 Visa Gift Cards for our top three winners and maybe a crazy trophy! We start lining up Saturday at 8 PM right outside Main Stage 1, here are the general rules for entry:

- Do not leave anything on the stage you can't immediately pick up and take off with you.
- Reference art strongly encouraged for both Walk-on AND Skit participants, no judge has seen everything.
- All skits must be limited to a few minutes and must be PG-13. Also, please keep all action sequences to half speed to avoid any injuries.
- There will be no mic's available for contestants.
- All costumes must be from a video game, anime, comic or graphic novel (Japanese, American, etc. Same rules as video games). To clarify on this rule, if it is a REAL character somewhere, and you have reference and proof, it is allowed.
- Anyone who wishes to participate must have the proper paperwork filled out and show up one hour before the event.

THANK YOU!

We couldn't have made SGC 2013 without the help of our community, the g1s! You guys are incredible and because of your dedication, we're are going to have the opportunity to bring SGC back to Dallas. While we appreciate everyone who is a fan of ScrewAttack, here is a list of all the backers who made this possible and Kickstarted SGC 2013.

Images, information and materials used on this digital guide are properties of their respective owners. Special thanks to everyone who supported us during all these years. The volunteers for their hard work during the event, the Kickstarter contributors for helping bring SGC back, our friends and family for tolerating us and our shenanigans and Sean Hinz for his tireless effort in helping put this whole thing together.
